What’s News:

FYI: The trade deadline is next Friday. All trades must be submitted for pending by 6PM ET. Then starting with Monday’s games 5/31, rosters can be expanded. Any player that has not burned out can be activated.

With approx. 50 games left in the season, 6 teams in the AL are within 8 games of a playoff spot. In the NL 5 teams are within 8 games. The Dreamers have won 6 in a row to get back in the hunt, while those pesky Gorillas have won 8 in a row. A lot of baseball left to play. Burnouts could come into play.

Oscar Charleston (Crimson Tide) is currently in 3rd place in Avg. (.380) just .11 behind League leader Bullet Joe Rogan(Warbirds). He is 4th in rbi (90) just 9 behind Joe Hauser(Stogies) and 1st in HRs with 33, 8 up on Babe Ruth(Pines). No player has won the Triple Crown in the SCL. Babe Ruth(1920), Tillie Walker(Skeeters, 1918) and Gavvy Cravath(Skeeters, 1915) have all finished 1st in HRs and rbi in the same season, but only Ruth finished in the Top 10 in Avg,(.356 #7)during his run at the Triple Crown.

Good Luck Oscar!!

Card of The Week:

Unknown- Brown's Tennessee Rats

This card is from the Negro League Baseball Museum set honoring the 100th Anniversary of the Negro Leagues, featuring the artwork of Graig Kreindler. Its' titled Unknown and features an unknown player from the 1914 Brown's Tennessee Rats.

The card and player represent the many unknown players whose stories have been lost in time. It represents, for me, all the Negro League players that I have regrettably left out of the SCL. It represents the players that have been included in the SCL, where no player photo is available.
